From the Vienna Gazette, dated June 18.

Vienna, June 18.

THE Court going from hence on Monday last the 13th Instant to the Palace of Favorita, the Empress conducted thither the Princess Elizabeth Christina of Brunswick-Wolfenbützel to receive the Sacrament of Confirmation, which she did with great Reverence from the Hands of the Prince Bishop of Vienna, in the Chappel of the Palace, in Presence of the Imperial Family and of a great Number of the Nobility. For some Days past divers long secret Conferences have been held in the Imperial Court, upon the present various Condition of Affairs, and Remonstrances from the Emperour have been sent to the Imperial Diet at Ratisbon. Lodowick Count Harrach, formerly Envoy and Ambassador to the Court of Spain, Knight of the Golden Fleece, Captain of the Imperial Guard of Halbardiers, and Councillor of State to the late Emperour Leopold, being declar'd by his Imperial Majesty his Privy Councillor of State, took the usual Oath on Sunday last and Possession of that high Dignity. The Emperour has promoted M. Wellern, Collonel of Artillery, to the Rank of Major General. The Prince Caraffa di Chiusana, having taken his Leave of their Imperial Majesties and of the Empress Dowager, who express'd themselves in a most gracious Manner to be extremely pleas'd with his prudent and noble Behaviour during the Time of his Stay in the Imperial Court, and having also taken his Leave of the principal Ministers, set out from hence late last Night for Italy, to follow the Detachment of Imperial Troops that are marching to the Kingdom of Naples: His eminent Qualities and rare Endowments have gain'd him the Affection and Esteem of all the Nobility in this Court. We have receiv'd a particular Account of Count Staremberg's putting a Supply of Provisions this Month into Leopoldstad, which is as follows; The Provisions and other Necessaries being brought by Water from Presbourg to Nagimagiar, were there loaded on Carts and Waggons the 6th Instant, and carried to the Imperial Army commanded by Count Staremberg then encamp'd at Pusta Fedimes; the 7th in the Morning the Army broke up from Pusta Fedimes and march'd to the Village of Sochor, whence 300 Horse were detach'd to Tirnau, with Orders to that City to furnish Bread and also to send some Deputies to our Camp. The 8th the March was continued by the Way of Putschan to the Village of Rogoviz: The 9th the Provisions and other Stores were put into Leopoldstad: The same Day the Garrison led by Baron Hackelberg Lieutenant Collonel of the Regiment of Devend was withdrawn to be chang'd, and Lieutenant Collonel Deortoni of the Regiment of Sickinghen march'd in with several Hundred Men; and the supreme Command of the Place was conferr'd provisionally on the said M. Deortoni, in the room of Baron Swartzenau who died the 11th of April last. This done, the Army march'd back and encamp'd at Sochor, whence Collonel Lambruch was detach'd with some Foot to garrison Tirnau. Count Staremberg having since advanc'd with the Vanguard of his Army to the strong Castle of Seret situate on this side of the River Waag, and garrison'd by the Rebels; they not only abandon'd it without making any Resistance, but were likewise by cannonading driven out of a Fort, which they had built on an advantageous Ground on the other side of the said River. A Garrison of Imperialists is put into the Castle of Seret, which is design'd to be made yet stronger and more defensible. The great Diet of the Rebels at Onod is not ended yet: According to the Report of the Peasants dwelling in the Neighbourhood of that Place, there have been such Heats and Dissentions between the Rebels at the said Diet, that they have come to Blows, and several were kill'd in the Fray: Of which we expect a Confirmation. A good Number of Cannon have been sent from hence by Water to Hungary, in Order to form a considerable Train of Artillery for some important Enterprize; and several thousand Bombs and Grenadoes are prepar'd at Presbourg for the same Service. There are Advices from Hungary, that Berezeni with 10000 Rebels is march'd towards Hatuan, probably to protect some such Congress of the Rebels as was held there 2 Years ago: The Rebels in Cassovia have branded some Persons in the Forehead with a Piece of their Copper Money made red-hot, for refusing to take that Money; and given publick Warning, that if any Person shall hereafter refuse that Money, it shall be pour'd melted down his Throat. The further Advices from Hungary are in the following Article from Presbourg, June 13. Yesterday came Advice from Strigonium, or Gran, that the Governour Collonel Bruckental marching out last Week with 2 or 300 Germans, and some Hundred Rascians, made himself Master of the Fort of the Rebels near Neudorf, (which was last Year taken demolish'd and abandon'd by Count Staremberg, and since repos'd and rebuilt by the Rebels) putting 400 Men in it to the Sword, making the rest Prisoners, and taking 6 Cannon. From the Imperial Army under Count Staremberg 'tis advis'd, that they are at present encamp'd on the Side of the River Waag. General Palfi is on the March with a Body of Troops from Croatia, and has written that by the 20th of this Month he shall be at Stein-am-Engel within a few Leagues of Oedenburg; and then the Detachment of Troops commanded by Count Rabutin, will leave Kitsee where they are now posted, and advance vance towards Altenburg. P. S. 100 Waggon's having been sent from hence to the Imperial Army with Bread for 5 Days, besides 76880 other Rations of Provisions, Count Staremberg has proceeded on his March towards Lanziz in this County; and a Bridge of Boats is sent down from hence with 200 Men to Navimagiar, being to be laid there over the Danube for a Communication with the Island of Schut.

Never Acted there before.
